Twenty-First Sunday in Ordinary Time

My Dear Friends,

In our Gospel from Luke, the first question the people asked Jesus was, "Lord will only a few people be saved?" Notice that Jesus was not asking who would be saved, because the audience was mainly Jewish, and they would have presumed that only a few Jewish people would be saved. Jesus' answer would have shocked his listeners by telling them that God's saving love would be made available to all people and nations, in other words, the Gentiles. Jesus also tells us that many will attempt to enter through the narrow gate, but will not be able or strong enough to enter. The narrow gate is what Jesus is demanding us to focus on by keeping his commandments that are based on our love of God and our neighbor.

Our gratitude and thanks to all who worked hard and gave so much time to make our Italian Carnival such a success. What I find so wonderful is that our parishioners and so many others donated their time and came together as a family. The interaction and friendship is great to witness; it brings so much happiness and unites us as one Parish Family!

Our thanks to Ralph DiGuiseppe for putting the Carnival together and taking care of all the details; such a demanding responsibility. Thanks to Anna Larrisey for all she does to make so many areas of the carnival work; she is always behind the scenes, to get all details right. Thanks to all the generous donations from our Advertisers, all who made baskets, baked goodies, and treated our children from Bristol Borough and beyond. All who gave time to set up and break down; especially our Bristol Borough High School Football team, our Police, and those who kept our carnival safe. Next week we will try to make a comprehensive list of those who gave so much to our parish. Even God helped us by providing good weather! Gran fiesta!

It almost back to school time, I hope all are getting prepared for another great learning experience this new academic year. Thank you for all your prayers and generous support of our Parish. God bless you!

Your brother in Christ,

Father Mooney

Held each Thursday between 9:00 am and 5:00 pm in the Sacred Heart Chapel at St. Charles Borromeo Seminary. Catholics are invited to spend time before our Lord in the Blessed Sacrament praying for vocations and ask Him to bless His Church with many holy vocations. We encourage everyone to pray that those whom the Lord is calling will have the courage to respond to His invitation. To sign up for a day/time to pray, visit www.heedthecall.org/phillyadores. For more information, email Phillyadoration@gmail.com. Specific details will be emailed to all adorers on the Wednesday before the scheduled prayer time. Location: Sacred Heart Chapel, St. Charles Borromeo Seminary (100 E. Wynnewood Road, Wynnewood).

Prayer for Vocations to the Priesthood

God, please give to your Church today many more priests after your own heart. May they be worthy representatives of Christ the Good Shepherd. May they wholeheartedly devote themselves to prayer and penance; be examples of humility and poverty; shining models of holiness; tireless and powerful preachers of the Word of God; zealous dispensers of your grace in the sacraments. May their loving devotion to your Son Jesus in the Eucharist and to Mary his Mother be the twin fountains of fruitfulness for their ministry. Amen.
