

To the Teacher: Use this activity to expand the Share experience in Chapter 8. It will help the children realize different ways they can say, "I'm sorry."

Four sets of handwriting lines, each consisting of a solid top line, a dashed middle line, and a solid bottom line.

Make up your own sentence which shows you are sorry.

1. I tell a friend that I forgive him.
2. I tell someone that she is not my friend anymore.
3. I smile and hug my mother or father.
4. I help a friend I have hurt.
5. I make someone a card to ask for forgiveness.
6. I am mean to a classmate.
7. I call a friend to ask her to play at my house.
8. I try to fix a child's toy that I broke.

Saying "I'm Sorry"

Name _____
_____

To the Teacher: Use this activity to help the children learn the Act of Contrition by memory.

[mAnel].

me to sin.

and to [dvaio] whatever leads to do [nanepe], to sin no more,

I firmly intend, with your [pleh],

I should love above all things.

I have [nednis] against you whom

to do [dogo],

In choosing to do wrong and falling

with all my [arte].

My God, I am [ryors] for my sins

Act of Contrition

Unscrambled Word

Then pray the prayer silently.

the words. Write each word correctly on the line.

Here is a prayer to pray when you are sorry. Unscramble

Act of Contrition

Name

_____
-----
_____