

Saying Thank You!

Name _____

Adults teach us to do many good things. In the Share story, Miguel asks his father to teach him how to tie a knot. Whenever an adult teaches us something that helps us be a better person, we should remember to say thank you.

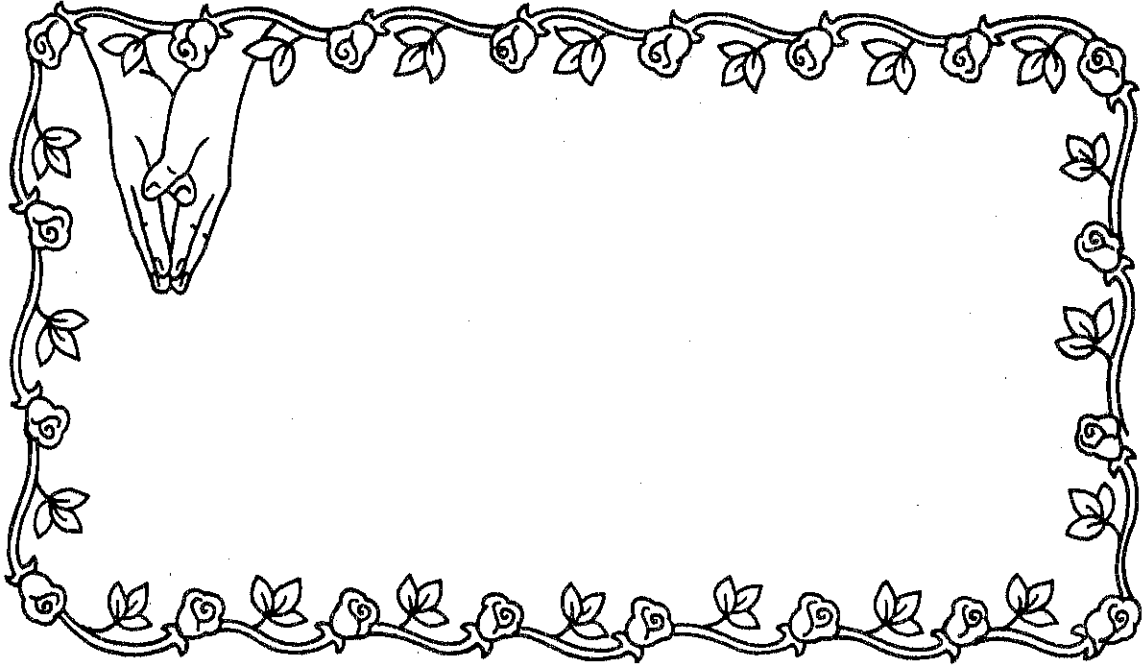

Cut out the card below. Complete the sentence on the front of the card. Fold the card and write a message on the inside. Decorate your card and give it to an adult who you want to thank for teaching you something.

To the Teacher: Use this activity with Chapter 4 to remind students to thank those people who help them learn new things.

To the Teacher: Use this activity with Chapter 4 to encourage students to pray daily.
