

Name _____

Making Good Decisions

In the first part of the activity, look at the list of possible choices of action that the character in each story might make. Then add one more choice. In the second part of the activity, give advice as to how each character should come to a good decision.

Michelle wants a pair of earrings she just saw at the mall. She doesn't have the money right now, but she really wants the earrings. She just has to have them.
Possible Choices of Action <ul style="list-style-type: none">• She can borrow the money from a friend.• She can save up her allowance.• She can ask for them as a gift.• She can steal them.• She can ask a parent for the money.• Other: _____	Advice What advice would you give Michelle in this situation? <hr/> <hr/> <hr/> <hr/> <hr/>

Jesse wants to go right home after school so he can play his new electronic game. But his mother has some errands to do and has told Jesse he is going with her. Jesse really wants to play his game.
Possible Choices of Action <ul style="list-style-type: none">• He can feel sorry for himself.• He can get angry.• He can accept his mother's decision.• He can cooperate with his mother to get the errands done more quickly.• He can ask if some of the errands can be put off for another day.• Other: _____	Advice What advice would you give Jesse in this situation? <hr/> <hr/> <hr/> <hr/> <hr/>

To the Teacher: Use this activity to reinforce the Share section in Chapter 11.

To the Teacher: Use this activity to reinforce the Hear & Believe section in Chapter 11.

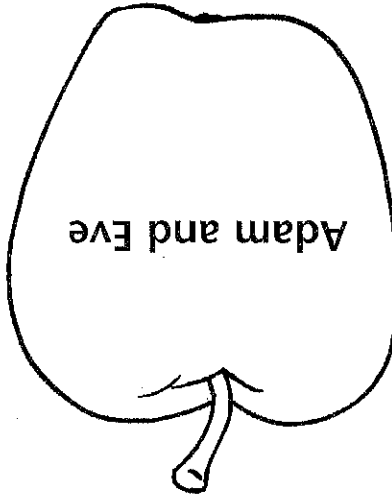

Took responsibility for their actions

Blamed each other and the serpent

Banished from the garden

Allowed to stay in the garden

Felt ashamed when God caught them

Told the serpent to leave them alone

Tried the forbidden fruit

Begged for mercy from God

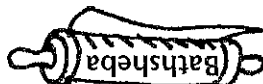

Resisted temptation

Their Original Sin would hurt all humans

2. Choose the statements that are true of Adam and Eve and connect them to the apple.

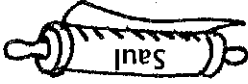

1. Briefly explain who each of the following people is.

Sin and Freedom

Name _____